New University
In a Growing Community

EGU
A University for York Region
In East Gwillimbury

Town of East Gwillimbury
York Region
Host Universities and their Satellite Campuses
UNIVERSITIES IN THE REGION AND ITS SATELLITE CAMPUSES

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

1. School of Architecture (Cambridge)
2. planned Balsillie School of International Affairs (Uptown Waterloo)
3. Health Sciences Campus (Kitchener)
4. planned Stratford Institute for Digital Media and Global Business

source: Campus Masterplan Update, 2009
Distance from Potential Host University to Satellite Campus

- Guelph University: 126 km
- York U.: 50 km
- U of T: 70 km
- Ryerson: 72 km
Different Ways of Integrating a University Campus into a Town
Campus Typologies

• Stand-Alone/Contained
• Dispersed
• City Grid
• Mixed-Use Community
Stand-Alone/Contained
Stand-Alone/Contained
Stand-Alone/Contained
Stand-Alone/Contained

UOIT

Building Legend
- UOIT
- Durham College
- Shared
- Parking lots
- Residences
- Outdoor
Stand-Alone/Contained

UOIT

Building Legend
- UOIT
- Durham College
- Shared
- Parking lots
- Residences
- Outdoor
Dispersed
Dispersed

New York University
City Grid

Queens University
City Grid

Ryerson University
Mixed-Use Community
Mixed-Use Community

Simon Fraser University
Mixed-Use Community

Jackson Community College
Mixed-Use Community

Lakehead University
Campus Footprint

Residential
Campus Footprint
Movement and Circulation

Campus Footprint
Campus Footprint

York University
On-site Parking

York University

Campus Footprint
Campus Footprint

University of Toronto
Mississauga
Campus Footprint

University of Toronto Mississauga

Shared Streets
Pedestrian Linkages
Major Gateways
Pedestrian Arrival Points
Major Landmarks

On-site Parking
Campus Footprint

UOIT

On-site Parking
New University
In a Growing Community