COMMUNITY NOTICE THANK YOU

On behalf of the Town of East Gwillimbury Toy & Food Drive Committee, we would like to sincerely thank all the residents, businesses and organizations for your generous donations to our annual Christmas Toy & Food Drive.

Once again, the generosity of our community made it possible for us to lend a hand to those less fortunate during the holiday season and helped make Christmas a little brighter for many children and their families.

Wishing you health, happiness and prosperity in 2008.

TIP OF THE WEEK

Installing a low-flow shower head will use on average 60% less water than traditional shower heads.

AUTHOR READING: WAYNE JOHNSTON

Wed. Jan 23 at 7:30pm

The Town of East Gwillimbury Civic Centre, 19000 Leslie Street, Sharon.

The Friends of the East Gwillimbury Library host an evening with bestselling author Wayne Johnston.

Johnston was born and raised in Newfoundland, where most of his novels are situated.

Among his work are award winning THE STORY OF BOBBY O'MALLEY (1986) and THE COLONY OF UNREQUITED DREAMS (1998), which was identified by the Globe and Mail newspaper as one of the 100 most important Canadian books ever produced.

Wayne's first work of non-fiction, a personal memoir of Newfoundland called BALTIMORE'S MANSION (1999), won the Charles Taylor Prize for Literary Non-Fiction and was nominated for the 1999 Governor General's Award for Non-Fiction.

In his latest novel, THE CUSTODIAN OF PARADISE (2006), he resumes a story he began in COLONY, following Sheilagh Fielding, one of the most memorable and beloved characters in Canadian Fiction. It won the Drummer General's Fiction Award and was a finalist for the Trillium Book Award.

Reception with refreshments will follow.
Admission $10, Members $8

Tickets available at the Holland Landing and Mount Albert Library Branches
