

Town of East Gwillimbury statement on Coroner's inquest into fatal 2013 fire

Sharon, ON (April 9, 2015) - The fire in the Dunsmuir residence on March 29, 2013 was a tragedy for the family, friends of the family and our entire community. It will not be soon forgotten.

Dr. David H. Evans, Regional Supervising Coroner for Central Region, Central East Office announced that an inquest will be held into the deaths of Kevin Dunsmuir, Jennifer Dunsmuir, Robert Dunsmuir and Cameron Dunsmuir.

The Town of East Gwillimbury welcomes the inquest and is hopeful that recommendations will be made to improve fire safety and fire planning for all Ontarians. East Gwillimbury continues to work with our partners the Coroner, the Office of the Fire Marshal and Emergency Management (OFMEM), York Regional Police, the East Gwillimbury Professional Fire Firefighters Association and all stakeholders on this very important issue.
