PUBLIC NOTICES

OUTDOOR ICE RINKS TO OPEN SOON

Town staff continue to prepare two outdoor ice rinks. They are located at Mount Albert Community Centre Park (53 Main Street Street) and Ridge View Park in Holland Landing (116 Pear Blossom Way).

For your safety, please follow all signage posted and stay off the ice until it is officially opened. Staff anticipate they will open sometime this week, weather dependent. Once the rinks are open, residents are asked to be mindful of social gathering sizes. If others are waiting to use the ice, please limit your skate to 30 minutes so everyone can enjoy the ice. Watch our social media accounts on Facebook and Twitter for up to date information.

SIDEWALK PLOWING AND SOD DAMAGE

The Town plows all sidewalks throughout Town using both Town and contracted resources. Staff take care to follow sidewalk paths to avoid damage but occasionally, during these plowing operations grass and sod damage may occur. This typically happens early in the season, or after a thaw when the ground is not frozen.

You can assist pedestrians by clearing your sidewalk after snowfalls, which will also assist sidewalk plows guide their path. If you do receive sod damage, please record the location, and email photos to customerservice@eastgwillimbury.ca. The team will create a work order to ensure your lawn is repaired in the spring.

NEW! ONLINE WATER & TAX ACCOUNTS ARE COMING!

Residents can now register to access water and tax bills online via the Town's new online portal! This new safe and secure online portal will allow residents to view account balances, account transactions, and previous bills.

To set-up your account, visit www.eastgwillimbury.ca/onlineportal and use the 5-digit pin on your water or tax bills to login. If you have any questions or require assistance, please contact Customer Service at 905-478-4282 or customerservice@eastgwillimbury.ca
