

The Town of East Gwillimbury (EG) has many Committees, Groups, and Boards which help contribute to the betterment of our community. Council will accept volunteer applications for individuals who would like to contribute to the community.

The Broadband Working Group is to identify broadband initiatives for East Gwillimbury. The objectives for the Group are as follows:

- Provide advice to Council and staff on the municipal involvement in Broadband initiatives and any relating infrastructure investment
- Build relationships with existing Broadband providers such as Bell, Rogers, Vianet, Explorenet, YorkNet & ENVI to enhance internet connectivity from an employment perspective and a residential perspective in rural areas
- Share findings and liaise with the Town's Economic Development Committee

The Group should have a minimum of 5 members.

The Group's meetings are held on the third Wednesday of every month, at 7p.m.
