

The Town of East Gwillimbury (EG) has many Committees, Groups, and Boards which help contribute to the betterment of our community. Council will accept volunteer applications for individuals who would like to contribute to the community.

The purpose of the Farmer's Market Working Group is to:

- Host a family atmosphere farmers' market.
- Showcase East Gwillimbury's agricultural wealth, to encourage healthy eating, and to encourage the environment- friendly 100-mile diet.
- Appreciate the financial contribution for the Town of East Gwillimbury while making appropriate plans to become self-sufficient.

The Group should have a minimum 4 members, with 50% of the committee being farmers or vendors at the market and 50% being non-vendors.

The Group's role is to:

- Coordinate, promote and oversee the East Gwillimbury Farmers' Market.
- Encourage healthy eating through a variety of demonstrations, promotions, and educational activities.
- Encourage a wide range of product offerings while focusing on products fresh from the farm.

The Group's meetings are held on the third Monday of the month at 5:30 p.m.
